

Forever Spring Farm Internship

Forever Spring Farm is delighted to offer internship programs geared toward the equine enthusiast designed to provide hands on workmanship to further develop future horse persons in the Thoroughbred Racehorse Industry.

Details:

- Seasonal paid internships
- Responsibilities include assisting in all daily care of thoroughbreds of all ages.
 - Breeding and foaling of mares in the foaling season January-May
 - Sales preparation of yearlings in September and sales preparation of mares and foals in November and January
 - Lay-ups
- The ability to meet and network within the thoroughbred industry
- Opportunities for short work placements outside of FSF
- Housing provided

Requirements:

- 18 years of age or older
- Previous hands on horse experience
- Valid U.S. driver's license

Application Process:

Please submit the following to aljackson@foreverspringfarm.com

- Resume
- Cover letter
 - Stating the personal goals you have set for yourself within the thoroughbred industry
 - How working at FSF may help you accomplish these long term goals
- Include at least 3 references with contact information

For more information on the farm and what we do please check out our website.

www.foreverspringfarm.com

